Police Items.

Annie McCoy left Bellaire last Monday at 10 a. m. She is sixteen years old, short and heavy. The Wheeling police were yesterday asked to look for her.

Charles Grist paid $5 and costs in the police court yesterday and Pearl Carr went to jail for thirty days in default of $10 and costs. They were out for immoral purposes.

Oysters are Away Up.

The prices on oysters are still away up. They sell at retail now, 60 cents a quart for select and 50 cents for standards, and scarce at that. The ice blockade in the Chesapeake bay, the principal source of supply continues, though a break up is expected soon, when the prices will come down with a rush.

A Musical Event.

The song recital by the pupils of Mr. Riccardo Ricci at L. O. O. F. next Wednesday evening, promises to be one of the premier musical events of the season in Wheeling. Among the pupils of Prof. Ricci who will take part in the recital are Miss Grace Updegraff, of Mt. Pleasant, Mr. Charles Zulauf, Mr. Will Day and Mr. Clements. Prof. Ricci is a thorough master and the recital is sure to be worth hearing. Tickets are on sale at F. W. Baumer &amp; Co.'s music store.

Stockholders' Meeting.

The stockholders of the Bostwick Fire Proof-Steel Lath Co. held the annual meeting yesterday afternoon, which was unusually well attended, nearly every share of stock owned in the city and vicinity being represented. Everything was found in satisfactory condition. The lath machine which passed through the Caldwell &amp; Peterson Manufacturing Company's fire was hurt very slightly, and is now in fully as good condition as before the fire.

The company decided to push the business in the future and is satisfied it can be made to pay a fair return. The following were elected as directors for the ensuing year: J. A. Miller, A. J. Clarke, M. L. Ott, Dr. S. C. Myers and Dr. H. B. Baguley. The board will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the company's office to organize.

West Virginia Tobacco Company.

The West Virginia Tobacco Company held its annual stockholders' meeting yesterday. The attendance was very full, and the election of directors resulted as follows: Augustus Pollack, Charles F. Brandfass, Hugo L. Loos, E. W. Schaefer, John L. Stroebel and D. L. Ratcliff. The board re-elected Mr. Pollack president, Charles F. Brandfass treasurer, and Howard P. Wilkinson secretary. The company is prospering nicely.
